

Mr Brambles' Fun Facts!

1. On average a cow produces 5,000 litres of milk per year. That is 200,000 glasses of milk in her milking lifetime.
2. Research tells us cows produce more milk when she listening to music
3. The placement of a donkey's eyes enables them to see all four feet at the same time
4. A group of geese on the ground is a gaggle, a group in the air is called a skein.
5. There are more chickens in the world than people! 50 billion...
6. Cows have best friends
7. Goats have accents
8. Baby robins can eat up to 14 feet of worms a day
9. Scientists have discovered that crows are so intelligent that they actually play pranks on each other.
10. The longest recorded flight of a chicken is 13 seconds
11. Frogs never close their eyes. They have a third eyelid, called the nictitating eyelid, that facilitates a clear view when swimming underwater or on land

12. Frogs use their eyes to help them swallow. They eat their prey whole and their eyeballs sink down into their mouth and push the food down into their throat.

13. A hedgehog can have 6000 quills on its body

14. Horses gallop at around 30 mph
15. A 19th century horse, 'Old Billy', died in 1822 aged 62 years
16. Rats laugh when you tickle them
17. A rabbits have amazing sense of smell and use scent glands on their skin to mark their territory
18. Spiders 'fly' by releasing web strands to catch the wind. It is called 'Ballooning'.
19. Goats burp! This is due to the role of their first stomach, the rumen. They have four stomachs in total.
20. A mother pig sings to her piglet while nursing.
21. Like snowflakes no two cows have the same pattern of spots.

